Dear Fred:

It was good to have seen you the other night at our dinner meeting and I only wish that there would have been more time for a fuller talk. My luncheon the other day at the Century lasted until about 3:30 p.m., and I found that you had left the Club when it was over.

This brings all best wishes for the New Year and also particular thanks to you for the green wreath which you sent from Bar Harbor, which we have enjoyed these past days.

Faithfully,
